

– First Light of Creation –

This lithograph, depicting the dawn of creation, was created as a mizrach, a piece designed to inspire and assist people in their prayers and spiritual growth. It is based on the original explosion of light, leading to the formation of the universe.

Located in the upper and lower part of the picture are the Barchu prayer (in Hebrew) and its response.

In the center of the picture, written in both English and Hebrew calligraphy, is the "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of Hosts" prayer.

There is also a hidden seven days of creation sequence contained within the design.
